Members Fun Boxed Poultry Show
and Social Evening

Thursday March 1st 2012
 To be held at Flamstead Village Hall at 8pm

Judge :- Mrs Chris Balaam

The rules-

Six randomly selected birds will be presented in show cages to the judge at one time. The judge will judge the birds on overall fitness and true to type. The best three birds will remain in the pens and another three birds put in and judged against these, and so on, until all birds have been presented and judged. It does not matter if your bird is a cross breed or pure breed so long as it is presented well and looks healthy. A pretty hybrid may go a long way!
